A New System of Geometry

By
The Reverend Joseph Caldwell
Professor of Mathematics and
President of the University of North Carolina

The first volume

Transcribed by Edward Murray who lived with
North Carolina to Orange to Chapel Hill

Annemoinne

1806

Cap. I.

Elements of Geometry

I. Mathematics is of two kinds: Pure and Mixed.

Pure Mathematics treats of quantity and magnitude abstractly. It considers them as unattained with any of the imperfections or impediments which the limited faculties of man may attach to them in their application.