It shall be his duty to inspect the honesty and morality of the Members, and report to the Society those who pursue by inattention to the Affairs of the University, by neglect of his duties as a Member, or by acting in such a manner as to reflect disgrace on his Fellow Members.

In the absence of the President he shall take the Chair and exercise the Duties of that place.

The Correctors shall be chosen by Ballot every six weeks.

They shall inspect the proceedings of the Members in the course of each week and report their corrections or remarks at the ensuing Society.

They shall inspect the Clerk's Book and see that his records of Transactions are real and correct.

The Clerk shall be chosen by Ballot every six weeks.

It shall be his duty carefully to note down the Transactions of the Society in real and correct writing; he shall mark down those who have been fined by the President; he shall rule over the names at each meeting, note down those present, and shall read over the business of the last meeting.