University of N. Carolina August 12th 1794.

The Faculty of the University wishing to promote a spirit of generous emulation among the Students have determined that each Student in each class as shall excel his classfellow in his Saturday compositions shall have his name mentioned with honour before the University. The subject of the composition in this Book was a reward for extraordinary merit as often as it shall appear they shall write down their composition at full length with their names annexed.

University of N. Carolina Apr 12th 1794.

The Faculty wishing to distinguish those who may exert themselves to promote good order have determined that their names shall be mentioned with honour before the University & their names recorded in this Book.