and amendments are necessary in the government of the University, present in the following Report, viz.,

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of inquiring what alterations and amendments are necessary in the government of the University,

Report,

That they have had the said subject under their consideration, and recommend to the Board the adoption of the following Ordinance:

Be it ordained, That from and after the first day of September next, no Class or the establishment of the University two Monitors shall be apnointed by lot, from the twelve Senior Students of each class, which Monitors, before they enter upon the duties of their office, shall in the presence of the Faculty and Students, and before some authority competent to administer an oath, take and subscribe the following oath, viz.: I, A Monitor of the [Class], or other as the case may be, on the establishment of the University of Notre Dame, do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the duties of a Monitor of the Senior Class or other as the case may be, during my continuance in office, without fear, favor or affection, to the best of my understanding. To help me God. And the said Monitor so appointed shall continue in office for the space of one month. That at the present session of the Board, the Trustees shall appoint to each class, who shall take the said oath in the presence of the Trustees, Faculty and Students, and shall continue in office until the said first day of September next,

And further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the Monitors as appointed under this Ordinance to preserve order among the Students in the Dining-room and elsewhere, and for this purpose they shall have full power and authority to suppress every species of unruliness, and any obsession of a Student to the authority of the Monitors when exerted in preserving the good order of the Institution, shall be considered a misdemeanor and punished by a private or public admonition, by suspension or otherwise, as the discretion may determine.

The Students of each Class shall sit at separate tables in the Dining Room, at which tables the Monitors of the respective Classes shall preside, each at the table of the Senior Class, at which the Tutor of the College with the Monitors shall preside. And the Monitors are hereby enjoined with full power, and it shall be their duty, to preserve proper decency and discipline among the Students at their respective tables, to prevent no loud talking, laughing,
