laughing or any improper behavior. They shall not suffer any waste of the provisions furnished by the Board, nor suffer the same to be broken at table; they shall not permit any of the provisions furnished by the Board to be taken away from the table, without the express consent of the Tutor, and in case of misbehavior, they are hereby directed to order the student or students so warned, having from table. The Monitors shall strictly watch over the conduct of the students at all times during the continuance of the course, and make report of any irregularity or impropriety of behavior to the Tutor, at the end of each week. They shall also report to the Tutor at the end of each week, all injuries which they may know of having done to the public Buildings and property during the week, with the name or names of such person as shall commit the same.

At the ringing of the Bell for breakfast dinner, and supper, the students shall immediately repair to the door of the Dining room, where they shall arrange themselves according to the order of their Class, on each side of the doors, their Monitors at their heads; and so that order shall follow the Tutor into the room.

And further ordained, That each class shall sit by itself and apart from the rest in the public Hall, at all times when they are there assembled with their Monitors at their heads, and be restrained from the Tutor and the Monitors to have the formalities prescribed in this ordinance strictly observed, and in no instance to permit the same to be depauperated from:

It shall be the duty of the Monitors of the Junior and Sophomore Classes, under the direction of the President of the University, and at the charge of the Board, to make the proper arrangements at each and every commencement to put the public Hall in order, and to have the students assembled in order to be heard in the public Hall for the accommodation of the Students, the Faculty, the Students, and others.

And further ordained, That any Student who shall wilfully do any injury to any of the property belonging to the University, whether the same be suspended from the punishment for a time not exceeding three weeks, and in the second offence, shall be expelled.

And further ordained, That the Tutor of the Preparatory School shall, by himself or his Assistant, at least three times in each and every week, visit the rooms in which the Students of the Preparatory School reside, and any Student who shall be absent from his room without sufficient cause, shall be punished at the direction of the President of the University and the Tutor of the Preparatory School.

And further ordained, That any Student in the Preparatory School who shall wilfully do any injury to the public Buildings or any of the property belonging...
