February 15th, 1856.

Mr Whitaker of the Sophomore class appeared and was admonished for impropriety at recitation. A motion was made to dismiss him in consideration of his repeated offences of this description. It was ordered that this motion should be laid upon the table and that he be informed of the fact as a warning against further transgression.

In this instance, the record does not state at whose recitation the impropriety was committed, but the Secretary distinctly remembers that it was at Mr. Knowles.

August 14th, 1856.

Whitaker of the Junior class appeared before the Faculty—reported by Mr. Knowles—to answer for impropriety in kind at recitation. A motion was made to dismiss him, which was lost by the casting vote of the President, because there was not a full meeting of the Faculty and no application had been made, according to the usage of the institution to have one summoned. The deys were—Profs. Hubbard, Hedrick and Tucker. Post, Lucas, Battle and Overmore. Says—Profs. Phillips, Fuller, Wheat, Shippe and Boon.
