"Impunity, reported impunity, removes all checks, opens all studies and hardens the most timid of students."

Vide my Memorials in the Whiteker affair, and the references I make to the cases of Messrs. Harrow, Jacobs and the Trent.

"The People, the Trustees, are not aware and could scarcely realize to what extent disorder is suffered to exist within the walls of University of North Carolina."

Did I think then that they knew to what extent disorder is suffered to exist in an institution so dear, I would certainly never have written fifteen pages to denounce it to the Trustees.

"It is a matter of daily regret to the instructors."

How often did I hear Judge Tubbee, Whate, McDuffie, and others lament it!

How often did we all hear Mr. Phillip's protest against expulsion while "made of the University a Botany Bay"?

Why! at the Commencement of 1854, Prof. Charter Phillips emphatically protested against degrees being conferred on some members of the graduating class, and maintained as far as to refuse permission to sign their diplomas!

"So far as I can judge from the opinions expressed by the young men who come here from abroad, and the members of the
