boarding at Mrs. Harpness a first house in the village with four other boys viz. Mr. Sowence, Bob. Johnston and two other boys. It is a very nice house. Tim is still at Miss Nancy says he had rather be with the largest crowd. Mr. Henry W. Motlers of Raleigh delivered a K.N Speech here yesterday before all the students and a large company besides. He is a fine speaker and seems to be worthy of a better cause. You was speaking in your letter of what a sensation the Johnston created. I think that the next time they or Salter, Swyn come to either a legal proceeding ought to be brought against them as disturbers of the public peace. Tell Brother James that the report of his death seems to have affected all his acquaintances wonderfully, and I did not know he was so popular before. One of my acquaintances came up to me when I arrived
