University of North Carolina.

Chapel Hill, July 1, 1869.

The next session of this Institution will open on Wednesday, the 18th day of August, proximo, and continue twenty weeks.

The expenses of the session, in currency, will be as follows:

- Board $12.50 to $15.00 per month: $56.25 to $67.50
- Tuition: 20.00
- Room rent, &c.: 5.00
- Contingent fee, for repairs, &c.: 5.00

Total: $86.25 $97.50

The Trustees offer all the benefits of the Institution, free of charge, to a limited number of young men, residents of the State, who shall present to the Faculty satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and studious habits. Early application should be made to the President of the University.

In addition to the regular undergraduate course of four years, there have been established a Preparatory Department and a Department for Normal Instruction.

During the session, a course of University Lectures upon literary and scientific subjects will be delivered in the halls of the College by gentlemen of distinction and ability.

Address,

S. Pool,
President.