drew look almost as if a driver let him once address himself to them, and show them that he feels for them like a father does for his ch children; and that done, our army is invincible. I beli eived every thing men tioned in your letter but I believe. Does Father thin there will be an exchange of prisoners shortly? Gen is anxious for another fight

Chapel Hill will soon be deserted, the conscription takes about three fourths.

When the number of Stude is reduced to twenty five or thirty, I intend to come remain at home. I expect to stay until the end of the session.

Governor Swain will nearly