3. That until a professor shall be appointed for the purpose, the President or next officer shall deliver a lecture once in the week on the principles of Agriculture, Botany, Zoology, Mineralogy or Commerce.

4. That the officers of the University collectively be called the faculty, & that they have power to make temporary regulations in the recess of the board, & to inflict any punishment herein after mentioned.

5. That the President or next officer report annually or oftener if called upon to the trustees, the state of the