& the revision of what ever may appear necessary to the officers of the University.
7. That they who only choose to study the sciences & the english Language be either formed into a class called the Scientific class, or else arranged with some of the literary classes when they shall be studying the sciences 8. That they who shall enter the third or fourth classes not having been students in former classes shall pay a certain sum, for the use of the University. That is to say for admission into the third class at or after the