Preface not acc. for, you are by this statement that I have $2.00 on hand, £ have Dr. Henderson nothing. I was to pay down for those things which I lost, as the goods are not to be had in the city,

I am indebted to Henderson nearly 150.

I have spent more money than I expected to spend when I left Smithfield, but have en-devoured to be as frugal as possible, if you can judge from the Statement whether I have been too prodigal. It is rumoured here that you are going to St. Mary's. And that you are to be the Author of the literary history. The Cancers of the Races, are often the topics of conversation at this place, And my vanity has often been nigh overreaching my prudence. Your affectionally, Your,
