To the Trustees,

In conclusion, the President solemnly called upon them to review their act, seriously to reflect upon the consequence of persisted to themselves, and to the Institution.

These being thus brusquely and other not then mentioned, with coolness, firmly, affectingly, and at length, prefaced with their consideration.

Mr. H. Oliver, Esq.

The following paper was subsequently received.

A Copy of the resolution made by the Philanthropic Society on Saturday the 15th May,
Resolved 1st.

That the thanks of this body are due to the members of the Senate Club for the note and that they have taken in behalf of an injured Clay's honor, that these fellow members of the Philanthropic Society are fully sensible of the justice of the cause, that referred to the wise and elevated motives which have inspired their conduct.

Resolved 2nd.

While the sentiments of this body most cordially sustain our fellow members of the Senate Club in this cause, they have earnestly desiring to establish peace and conduct and to diffused a spirit of good feeling as far as within its power ever at the expense of true principles, and request its brothers of the Society to acquiesce their just proceedings to the decision of the Country.
