that both will be impossible.
Such a poem, to be good,
must be written from the heart and not from the imagination, and once frequently must be written by one who personally acquainted with it.

One of yourselves,
therefore, would do it much better than I should; for he could

© Copyright 2005 by the University Library, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, all rights reserved.
Documenting the American South (http://docsouth.unc.edu/index.html)