Tuesday morning, 25. April. 9. am. Occupation. Nothing can be more calculated, than the continuance of the College bell for prayers and all the usual recitation times. When there are now bout one eleven and one junior in College and besides in the usual walks to visit Anna and Mary.

I halved through the campus and between the college buildings, and Jean always meet the gardener at nine o'clock or some other meals.

game or the house floors and passages and stories, as well as the College buildings, as the chapel itself.

Jasiae Soekiehl yesterday to go out and sea Mr. Allen Smith. Which the diec once reports things in a better condition. alter the last has fulfilled of every thing, all the bed and table linen once comes not one left. Having a guest there is in better spirits and more compose and has these supplies sent to the French sister at home. But Sidney took the woods, and with a long beard once more apparel. Paul joining off at the periods of some poor family in the neighborhood and Joe lags. That the more effective tearing out the deception.