...hether or a majority of the members shall act, and the President and Treasurer shall be a quorum to do any business or a majority of the members without action of the officers shall be a quorum, but at the first meeting of the said society there shall be at least fifteen of the above trustees present in order to proceed to business and the trustees at their annual meeting may appoint special meetings within the year or in case of unforeseen accidents shall render a meeting necessary the President by order of the president and any two of the trustees designated to him in writing shall by particular notice to each trustee as well as by an announcement in the State Gazette convene the trustees at the time prepared by the president and the members then convened shall be a quorum to do any business except the appointment of a President or successors to the vacancy in the desquamation or the resignation of any member, and the trustees then convened may supply the place until the next annual meeting of the board of trustees and no longer.