C. Hilo Oct. 5th 1834

Dear Sir,

I have been instructed by the faculty here to inform you at once of the Board of Trustees, that a number of the students have made a representation in relation to the condition of one of the College buildings, which seems to require some notice. In the building called "the East building" has long been a considerable crack, extending across the whole of one side of the building & the young men who occupy the building say it is increasing from session to session & the condition of the floors in some places seems to indicate that the superstructure is becoming unsettled. We do not know whether there is in fact any real danger of the walls giving way, but the impression of danger is so general among
