The Committee on the Restrain of the University together by law to submit a report as to the progress and extent of restraining accomplished and such sum as to be accomplished by the contract to Very soon after the organization of your Committee in this meet of April - a great destructive tempest of lightning struck the building a very large portion of the Southern Water passed over your College building at Chapel Hill burning the New East Building containing the Hall and Library of the Philosophic Society. The incident which a large fire casually spread a large fire Patience to good damage from a long and continued this winter. Fortunately the books of the library were in a great measure unnoticed from the falling tree, by the April 20th the chimney and the adjacent Hall of the society in the severe and de ity taken was saved in its furniture repairs and ornaments by a machine oil cloth on the horn which there was would have destroyed the wall and ceiling of one of the very management hall of this State. For the imme ciate care of the master Jones before the storm had large open we are in this © Copyright 2006 by the University Library, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, all rights reserved.

Documenting the American South (http://docsouth.unc.edu/index.html)