reason for doing that his wish may not be justly supposed to be a latent point.

I fear that our economies will not justify an immediate application for the escattlement of a Botanical garden and herbarium I am not without hopes however of being able to obtain a site from the next General Assembly to justify our attempting it on a larger scale. In the meantime we will have enough to do in improving the present used on which subject I would be very glad to have a communication from you. Will you be kind to communicate to above to direct us on this head?

Do you know, if you have it, would not the Letter which exactly obtain a more numerous edition be better than anything else?—the charge in engraving the Episcopalian have created the well (for in a very new Church) printed by the W. of Philadelphia.
The typesetters & woodcutters have subscribed under a circultion for similar undertakings. Especially and the reputable families are putting something away, and at present, I think there is no difficulty in persuading it the most much.

Last year we made in the state the act of the East General Assembly prohibiting the sale.
