Offerings of the University.

8. That they who are to study the science and the English language be either formed into a Clap called the scientific Clap or else arranged with some of the literary Claps when they shall be studying the science.

9. That they who shall enter the third or fourth Clap, not having been students in former Claps, shall pay a certain sum for the use of the University, that is to say for admission into the third Clap, or or after the middle stage of its progress, the sum of eight Dollars for entrance into the fourth Clap at any stage from the beginning to the middle period, the sum of fifteen Dollars from the middle period to the end. The sum of

10. That in addition to the annual examination there shall be three quarterly examinations.