and reports to the trustees as unworthy of a standing in the university, and shall be by them expelled accordingly.

And be it further ordained that each and every student who shall be adjudged guilty of wilfully injuring the public buildings or public property of the university in any manner whatever shall be in addition to his liability to make good the damages for the first offence be suspended by the faculty for a term not exceeding three months, and for the second offence the shall be another day indefinitely, reported by the faculty to the trustees and shall be by them expelled.

And be it further ordained that at the resumption of the hall for breakfast, dinner, and supper the students shall immediately repair to the door of the dining room, where they shall arrange themselves according to the order of their classes, on each side of the door, with their monitors at their head, and that every shall follow the lecturer into the dining room.

And be it further ordained that each class shall eat by itself and apart from the other students on class with their monitors at their head, at all times when they shall be assembled in the public hall; and it shall be considered the duty of the lecturers or monitors for the time being to cause that the formalities prescribed and directed by this ordinance shall be strictly observed, and in no instance omitted or departed from.