no more than ten stripes: and every student of the said school, being sixteen years of age or upwards who shall in like manner be convicted of an offending shall for the first offence be publicly admonished and sus- pended for a term discretionary with the president of the univerity, and for the second offence such student shall be expelled by the president without reference to the trustees.

William Pateh
President.