to the determination of giving to the public our account of the occurrence in Monday's paper.

In speaking on the conduct of the students, it has been alleged, that there may have been amongst the officers, who upon cool reflection regret the folly which so precipitately hurried them into so unqualified a combination and will be found on the file on this latter reaching young men who may be disposed by to return of their past duties to return to duty. But may be others who having left college for honor will be compelled to return under the authority of their parents or guardians to the yard or both of their discipline. The other have have given it as their opinion instructed me to communicate the same to you. That none of the students who subscribe to the Demonstrance of the letters and seals, © Copyright 2006 by the University Library, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, all rights reserved.

Documenting the American South (http://docsouth.unc.edu/index.html)