Their after meetings, but who nevertheless have matters left the college not have been guilty of any indecency or impropriety of conduct other than those above mentioned, with the abstentions from recitation; shall be restored to their standing in the University on their making a respectful application to that end to the Faculty; and on their further making the proper acknowledgments in regard to their late errors of conduct into which they have unfortunately been led; provided the President shall deem it proper to act in the demand of them such acknowledgment. With regard to those who have abstened themselves on the account of the have taken from gallop, it is considered that applications from them for readmission shall within be refused or regarded by the Faculty.