but that all such applications shall be made to the Secretary, who will decide them.

In looking over the number of students who have signed and of course supposing that all have withdrawn, the Secretary has imagined that some difficulties will occur as to some of the cloaks in regard to the continuation of Monitorship under the existing Ordinance. Where such do exist, it is the opinion of the Secretary that in all cases where the late reception of the Students has caused quite a diminution in the number of any class on the Establishment of the University it is to under the last Ordinance of the Board impracticable or particularly grievous in its operation upon any particular student or students company. Such cloaks that where it is all such cases.
