With respect to the latter part of the report, I admit the Bacon is fat, but as the boys eat all the ham not taking one for my cause the committee foresees family, that the hams will to be thrown away, as they eat the hams, certainly they ought also to be the fates part. The hams were used when vegetables were scarce. But this is in lay away of a postscript.