demands of each ejectee a pint of Coffee or Tea, at the option of the Judge, and the necessary quantity of warm bread or biscuit.

In the Board of Trustees of the University of N. Carolina

December 10, 1807

Resolved that the bill of fare at Common's in the city of N. Carolina for the year 1807 be fairly transmitted to the Board by the Secretary of the Board and transmitted to the Faculty of the said university; and that the Faculty cause such transcript to be stuck up in the public dining room, and see that the same is kept up throughout the two next ejections.

By Williams Pretto