estimated by the regularity of his attendance on all the exercises and duties of the college. When a youth is frequently absent from prayers and recitation, there is reason to apprehend that he is falling into evil company, irregular habits, and a disregard, if not a spirit of opposition to the laws and authority of the college. On the other hand, punctuality in these duties is most commonly accompanied with a proper deportment in general, and is a presage of ultimate success in the accomplishment of a good education.

No. of times

Your son has been absent from prayers . . . 12
from recitation . . . 39

There are 143 students. Of these 25 have not been once absent from prayers, and 20 not once absent from recitation.

33 persons have been absent more than your son from prayers.

During the long vacations of six weeks at one time, and four weeks at another, please to make such arrangements, as will render it unnecessary for your son to be absent from the college at any time in the session.

Signed,

E. Mitchell, President, Prof.
