friends gave to B. a pistol loaded and ready - upon T. B.'s drawing out his pistol the wife set his pistol from & B. refrained from fighting on account of the laws at first. The entrap had come a great way to school and did not wish to be expelled or to fall into disgrace - Intended to it at Bradford some minutes to go and talk to B.