playing for it at the shop. There are all The particulars which I can recollect are of pertaining to a settlement between us.

If you ever come into my neighbor hood I can allow yourself to call. I shall be happy to see you. In the mean time your letter will find me at a martinsville.

Mr. Gillaspie joins me in begging that you would make our respects acceptable to the family to be left to you. Except with yourself to believe me to be

With real regard

Dear Sir,

Your most obedient

J. S. Gillaspie