Director's House.

1. Until the erection of another Boarding House, the Board of Visitors shall appoint some suitable person to occupy as a Boarding House, the present House, half of the premises attached to the same, with the privilege of using the necessary fire wood from the lands belonging to the University, in cultivating the cleared grounds upon such terms as they may consider compatible with the interests of the Institution.

2. Every student shall have the right of boarding at the Boarding House, and, upon the terms agreed on by the Board of Visitors, the occupant and it is recommended, by the Board, to the student, generally to board at that the Board.

Uniform dress of the Students.

1. The regular dress of the student of the University shall be uniform; it consists in the summer season of the year of a coat of dark grey mixture, chief cotton material, decent in appearance, cheap in value, of white pantaloons and waistcoat; in the winter it shall consist of coat, pantaloons, and waistcoat of blue color of decent and cheap material.

2. The bearing of boots by the student is entirely prohibited; and it is recommended to them that other parts of their dress be plain, but always decent, having due regard to economy in price, and to the cleanliness of their person.

3. The regulation with regards to uniform of dress shall not apply to the seniors, except upon such occasions as may be as shall suit their convenience.
