and intolerance leading on its bosom thousands of the Bell hounds of abolitionism engaged in their unholy crusade against their country, the Constitution and their God, which has just visited on the northern states, may well cause every true patriot to shudder for our future. Such a course on the part of one portion of our union is rapidly sapping the very foundations of our government. Casting aside all consideration of honor, of justice or even of decency, stampeding upon the remonstrances of a large portion of their fellow citizens, and disregarding the plainest dictates of reason, and the evident meaning of the Constitution, the behold them pursuing a course of conduct which if persisted in, must, and will terminate in the destruction of the fairer and more just structure ever reared by mortal hands. We bow in high thought of the blessings of liberty which we enjoy in such rich profusion. We claim to be the only free people of the earth! But even now while our government hippeus the
