Casting aside their ministerial garb, the pretended preachers of the Gospel, instead of expounding religious precepts, and inculcating benevolent aids, have taught until in the youthful heart the poison ingredients of sectional feuds and substern maiden virtue by hardened vice. Such and always will be the case until that mammoth monster, fanaticism, is quelled by reasoning ascends the two great sections of this once glorious Union. Division alone is not the only instance in which the North has shown a want of conservatism. It is the hot bed and cradle of all the sins of the day. They are all born and nourished there. Exhortations the policy in spite of earnest admonitions of Washington and all of our great statesmen of meddling with the affairs of foreign nations. Turbulism a modification of abolitionism, Socialism or free loveism, a disgrace to a civilized nation.
