proper person to make the choice, and where responsibility lies. The legislature then appersently upon him.

I wrote to you last about the 9th of February, I don't know whether you read the letter, it was intended to go by Mr. Crocen, and failed that con- very once, and after I lose was put into the form of a fire. Adieu my dear friend, and we are not you yours M. R. Racine.

P.S. The enclosed letter contains your letter and you your reply to me of your work.