to promote the interests of that Institution. There seems to be an extraordinary facility attending our relations with G.Britain, whereas there is a prospect of having some accumulated and accumulating differences come early settled, some sooner states in and blot our hopes, Monroe’s treaty, Evidence’s arrange ment, those’s mission, Jackson’s embupy all have shared the same fate. How is this? is it the finger of Providence, is it futurity, or is it the invisible hand but the “wise man of the East” say they have been, or what is it? —

When a man intende to the eye of the time, the strange course of our people of years, the entangled situation of our own foreign relatinos, connected with the convoluted state of the world, when will he find any ground of hope, or is it possible to respect, the year, my apprehensions, the state of things, naturally and inevitably suggests...