General Persu to make the Cash Donation for the purpose of building the chapel at the University, we gave him reason to expect that we would use our endeavors to have his munificence properly commemoated, and upon some observation made by the General willingly to ascertain the manner in which we supposed such a thing should be done, was suggested that the Postern after his death rest in the chapel upon a monument of marble to his memory; and afterwards on inquiring what would the cost of such a memorial of him, I remember he have told him that an right marble slab, let into the wall, and designed by an artist or some manner of that kind would not cost more than $40 or $50; I think he added that even by the original donation:

and if I am not greatly mistaken you will find by the Treasurer book, that exact sums. The fact — Now this I reproach myself exceedingly for not have-my abstract this matter to the Board of Trustees
