My Dear Sir,

The Ed. Committee today adopted the following Resolution:

"The Ed. Com. taking into consideration a communication from the Pres. of the University transmitting a copy of the proceedings of the Faculty relative to the action of the Junior Class in the election of a Chaplain to deliver the Valedictory oration at the next Commencement, resolved that while they earnestly deplore any thing like religious opinion in harmony or in conflict alike with the principles of the Constitution & their own policy, they are other important considerations, the force & bearing of which upon the question at this time the Executive Committee could not then understand & more justly appreciate than the Senior Class. The Committee therefore in the opinion that the Pres. & under the circumstances, in advising the Class to consult the Committee act judiciously do.
