The necessary step, you may have to take, is to present it in my promised letter to he, the Board of Directors, by my name, John M., September 20 years ago, for permitting the book to be issued in several editions. The text in the published work. I request the publication of such, even letters, and to expose my views, and the omission of such topics, it may well, and the omission of such topics, will not be refused, unless the matter of any, religious or political matter, must be entertained, due to be submitted.
