I am for patronizing it, but when she fails to do that, then I think in justice to one's own self they should change to some other college; our class (the junior) is much dissatisfied with their course, we feel the absence of Prof. Hupton much. The seniors do well, our course is incomplete 2 1/2 is the senior. I have considered the plan of taking both together, as I have plenty of time I can easily do most of the classes wish to do the same thing, that means we will be enabled to graduate next year. To thereby save our year. I have just finished a conversation with Prof. T. he is anxious to pursue that course, I will see the Geo. this evening if he will allow us to think nearly the whole class will join us, what do you think of the plan, write at the nearest hour ever at old students hands have left the.
