at it as much as anybody. He is getting all kinds of in good time. He is an excellent example of all the attackers. The Times are getting to call him name. He tells me that he hardly ever was as angry as he

But that is a mistake. They talked too hastily at first.

He has been made one of the P.P. Directors. All votes against Purl. Purl was appointed as his name. De Jones took his under his name. Do you know Holden has refused to write the Rand. Do you know why? I don't say you don't. So I'll tell you. You do know that Thompson voted for himself for President. He's doing nothing

Now President. In the case of the election Holden insists that the vote must be published. Now the attorneys (they Holden's direction) has taken the ground that there is no lawful organization of the P.P. Directors and that there was. Directors. President all quite regular. He replied that no man I vote myself out of office.

the election of Thompson was illegal. In a piece it is itself he had. He wrote a proposal to come the made on that ground. It is before the Supreme Court.

In these words I hope the oath I will argue that point in court. He thinks Thompson's discharge in the occasion dug his hand into the thirteenth or so. He called Purl the other day he was sick by directing a President who had voted himself in. It is one way © Copyright 2006 by the University Library, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, all rights reserved.

Documenting the American South (http://docsouth.unc.edu/index.html)