lying speeches since. I did not suppose he would ever go to Yokesville with the Coopers. They say he was much agitated at the thought of it; probably precipitated the attack. He was at Ch. to hear Cooper preach, I believe, was very injure. Old Aunt Jenny Hilliard died last week. Skipper Nancy has entirely done her duty by him; but he is not entirely since the surrender. I am sorry to hear that Miss Tenney has reenacted Miss Nancy. So of her borders are going to leave him. Luke Carr paid me a long visit them. He said the two or three boys who came here prepared for college, are disgusted. Whitted from Henderson county says he has no use for one of them. But they don't teach anything. One of the teachers has five recitations a week. Pool's correspondence with Holden was fixed up across H. office table. When I went down to see about getting the buildings Holden wrote and asks what was the no. of applications to join college. Pool writes that the average no. in attendance the last few years of college during was twice was 60—that the applications since last March are 521. The whole correspondence is characterized as fraudulent, by every man in C. H. That is its success.
