And now, Mr. President and fellow members, concentrating upon this happy occasion and praying God's choicest blessings for all time to come upon our beloved society. I invoke in its hands the authority it vested in me seven years ago.

The society then adjourned at 6 p.m. Clark.

W. L. Saunders, Pres.

J. H. Burton, Sec.

Philanthropic Hall

Friday night, Sept. 17, 1875.

The house was called to order by Pres.

Roll called, the following members found present:

Reading and approval of minutes.

Motions & Resolutions.

Moved, That a committee of five be appointed to examine the Constitution and By-laws and report such changes or amendments thereto as they may deem advisable and carried.

Brinson

J. W. Manning.

Resolved, That a tax of fifty cents be levied on each member of this society to pay current expense.

After some debate this was laid over for further consideration until the next meeting.

Bryant

E. H. Wilson.

Resolved, That the thanks of the society be extended to W. L. Saunders for his faithful and invaluable service in preserving its